WHAT IS COMMUNITY TO YOU?

MIDDLE EASTERN
RESOURCE CENTER

MISSION STATEMENT

- ❖ The Middle Eastern Resource Center (MERC) promotes the cultural awareness and academic success of students of Middle Eastern, North African and South Asian (MENASA) heritage. It fosters dialogue, cross-cultural learning, and interaction among the diverse ethnic groups within our MENASA student communities and the campus-at-large. Through its programs, the MERC works to assist students to embrace their cultural identity, integrate into student life, promote an appreciation and celebration of diversity, and reinforce an affirmation of our institutional and educational commitment to leadership, achievement, collaboration, excellence, and community.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

Academic and personal support that is targeted to engage identifying student communities

- ❖ Network with different student orgs, depts and faculty affiliates
- ❖ Facilitating access to these resources to our underrepresented student communities
- ❖ Available by appointment for mentorship and support

Providing support for sociopolitical awareness and identity development at both individual and communal level

- ❖ Offer space for events, meetings, gatherings, lounge & study
- ❖ Provide a physical sanctuary for all students on the first floor of the SRB (under non-COVID circumstances :/)

CULTURAL AFFIRMATION

- ❖ Educate and unify the UCSB & Middle Eastern community through the mediums of art, language, people, food, and traditions.
- ❖ Show the diversity that encompasses the Middle Eastern cultural community
- ❖ Develop an understanding & appreciation of Middle Eastern cultural heritage & history.
- ❖ We serve students of all backgrounds, with a particular focus in students of Middle Eastern, North African and South Asian heritage (MENASA)
- ❖ Help facilitate culturally affirming programming (Diwali, Eid, Nowruz, etc.)
